Welcome to Counseling Supervision Services

Who I am

I am a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor in the State of Kansas and a Licensed Professional Counselor in Missouri. In addition I am a Nationally Certified Counselor and a Registered Play Therapist- Supervisor. I hold my PhD in Counselor Education, Counseling, and Supervision from Idaho State University as well as my M.Ed in Counseling from Whitworth College in Spokane Wa.

What I do

I provide supervision to individuals who are practicing counseling, Play Therapy or Marriage and Family Therapy. This supervision can be used toward licensure in MO as LCP, or MFT, in KS as an LCPC, or nationally towards registration as a Play Therapist.

Confidentiality

I will guard any information obtained about or from you with confidentiality as far as the law allows. The following exceptions pertain to confidentiality.

- Mandated reporting of physical or sexual abuse of a child or someone who is in need of protection
- Threats of suicide or homicide
- Information necessary for supervision or consultation
- To defend myself or my practice in court of law
- As required by law

Cell phones or e-mail. These are useful ways of communicating and can be helpful but you need to be aware these are not entirely confidential ways to communicate. Any e-mail I receive from you, and any responses I send to you, will be printed out and kept in your supervision record.

If you are in supervision as part of the licensing process, I will share with the licensing board regarding your skill, hours and any concerns I have regarding your counseling skills.

Address

I have read this document, had sufficient time to be sure that I considered it carefully, asked any questions that I need to and understand it. I am seeking supervision from Dr. Tricia K Brown. I understand that she will share information about our supervision as needed with licensure boards and will end supervision if she believes this is necessary.
